Determinants of Job Satisfaction Among Lady Police Officers of Islamabad by Muhammad Uzair Khan

The aim of this research study is to understand the impact of work environment on job satisfaction among lady police officers in Islamabad, Pakistan, further how demographic variable moderate the relationship between work environment and job satisfaction. Results showed that work environment has positive impact on job satisfaction and demographic variable positively moderate the relationship between work environment and job satisfaction. Future research direction is to add more independent variables in order check combine effects on job satisfaction.

Keywords: Demographic Factors, Job Satisfaction, Work Environment